New Year and New Hope

We just entered the last month of the year 2010 and we are now entering a new year as well as new challenges, but we have something that cannot forget or forge, and that is new hope. In the midst of the crisis many of us had to face uncertainties, financial disappointments and many losses of many types. But we still have to look forward and have new hope for this New Year, which like it or not, we all must face. I want to be very honest and I want you to be honest as well, in acknowledging that 2010 was a year of many dark moments, vulnerabilities, and disappointments; but it was also was a year of many opportunities and acquisitions, but most of all a year of growth. Our company was able to established our office in Barcelona, Spain and we accomplished many tasks that we hope will bear fruits next year.

Now I would like to say a word about tomorrow. We are entering this new year not knowing exactly what is coming or what is going to happen due to the fact that unemployment still high and the deficit still growing. But make no mistake- we have the power to change our future and we can and must prepare ourselves today so that our future can be brighter. Don't enter the New Year with negative thoughts or a defeated heart. Get yourself together and concentrate with the vision that is already in place and begin the New Year with a desire for winning, and the goal of making this New Year the best year ever. Don't think of falling apart because 2010 was not what you expected. I believe that 2011 is going to be a better year for all of us; we are better prepared, more experienced, carry more wisdom, and have something good to contribute. I want to thank those who were a part of helping us to reach our goals this year, our friends, clients, partners, our representatives around the globe and our own staff, the people that really made things happen, Most of all I want to give thanks to the most important one, our God, our savior and I want to thank our Jesus Christ for been with us always, and Merry Christmas to him and to all of you and to our readers, Thank you very much for giving us the opportunity to serve you and to be able to demonstrate that we need one another. I thank you with gratitude and the hope that we can continue presenting our help and opportunities to you.

We wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New year!

God Bless you all,
Have a good profitable month!
